† Call to WorshipShannon Baxter
Liturgist: O, God, you created us to belong to you and to one another.
People: We gather to reorient ourselves toward God and community.
Liturgist: Guide us toward love in our day-to-day;
People: remind us to seek justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you.

† Call to Confession

† Prayer of Confession
Most merciful God,
we get lost too often; we follow our own ways and get lost in our heads about what we must do to be “good” Christians.
We lose track of the example set by Jesus.
Forgive us for our stubbornness and our short attention spans.
Help us to love those around us, and guide us as we enter into beloved community.
Sustain us as we seek to transform the world.

† Silent Confession

† Words of Assurance
Liturgist: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God’s love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
All: Glory to God. Amen.

† Passing the Peace
Liturgist: As a forgiven and reconciled people, let us exchange signs of reconciliation and love. The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

† Gloria Patri.....No. 71
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

Anthem: Teach Me, O Lord William Byrd
Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.
Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law: yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.
Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my desire.
Incline my heart unto thy testimonies: and not unto covetousness.
O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity: and quicken me in thy way.
O stablish thy word in thy servant: that I may fear thee.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, and is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.
(Psalm 119:33-38)

Sermon: One Thing..... Will McLeane

† Affirmation of FaithShannon Baxter

We are not alone, we live in God’s world.

We believe in God:

who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus,
the Word made Flesh, to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the church:

to celebrate God’s presence, to live with respect in Creation,
to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Today’s Music

The last psalm in the Bible, Psalm 150, ends with this invitation: “Let everything that has breath praise the Lord. Praise the Lord.” German composer Joachim Neander gave us words to do just that when he wrote his most well-known hymn, “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty.” Hymnologist John Julian declares this to be “a magnificent hymn of praise to God, perhaps the finest production of its author, and of the first rank in its class” (Dictionary of Hymnology). And indeed, this is a hymn that has stood the test of time (over 300 years) to remain one of the most beloved praise hymns in the Church. As we sing these words, we join with the voices, in many languages, of millions who have gone before us, and those across the globe, to sing these great words of thanksgiving and honor to the God who created us, protects us, and befriends us.

Bulletin Cover Art

“Christ and the Rich Young Ruler” is by German artist, Heinrich Hofmann (1824-1911). Wearing rust and dark blue robes, a light-skinned Jesus stands central in this image as he directs our attention away from the rich man who stands to his left and toward the two people to his right. The rich man wears robes of green and white with ornate, golden embroidery around the edges and a colorful belt around his waist. He also wears a hat with fanciful beading around its lower half. The two people on Jesus’ left, the objects of Jesus’ attention and where he draws the rich man’s attention, appear to have very little by comparison with one wearing a dark robe that cover the head with a hood and the other wearing no robes above his waist and who appears to be weak and vulnerable.

Disaster and Recovery Relief Efforts

CLEANING KITS SUPPLY DRIVE AND ASSEMBLY OPPORTUNITIES

Hurricane Helene caused unprecedented and massive destruction across a wide and long path throughout the southeast, and was followed by Hurricane Milton which hit the peninsula of Florida this past week. The supplies we've gathered and packed in the past have been sent to UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief) warehouse in Louisiana and are probably already on the ground for relief efforts. Some churches in the Western North Carolina area are already reporting running out of cleaning kits. Sensing an urgent need to get more kits made we have three different dates for you to be involved in getting necessary supplies together.

Here's how to get involved:

1) Buy supplies from our Amazon Wishlist and have them shipped to the church. Please buy these very specific supplies from this list at westendumc.org/cleaningkits and have it shipped to the church at 2200 West End Ave, Nashville TN 37203.

2) Join us on one of these dates for UMCOR Cleaning Kit packing:

Sunday, October 13 // 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Youth Ministry packing event open to youth and youth volunteers only

Saturday, October 19 // 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Churchwide packing party open to anyone in the Church Gym.

Sunday, November 10 // 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Children's ministry packing event open to children and their parents/caregivers during the Sunday School hour

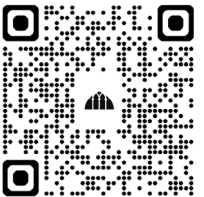

MONETARY DONATIONS

Money is one of the best ways to help in the aftermath of any disaster. Money can buy what people need in real time on the ground. It can also go to support recovery efforts. Let's give generously to our neighbors experiencing the worst devastation and destruction that many of these areas have seen in many years. Here are three ways to give directly to help relief efforts. Giving links can be found at westendumc.org/helene or by scanning this QR code.

♦ UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief) - This is our disaster response arm and where the money goes far, particularly in long term recovery efforts. US Disaster Response funds will be used to mitigate disasters in the United States.

♦ Western North Carolina Annual Conference - This annual conference is one of the hardest hit in our connection. For those of you with direct connections to that area, this is a way to directly donate to them.

♦ Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference - You can support the TWK Response to the Hurricane Helene Disaster by giving to our conference disaster recovery fund. Checks can be made out and mailed to the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference at PO Box 440132, Nashville, TN 37244 (please note Disaster Response in the memo line). These funds will go toward supporting immediate needs in the affected areas and funding our Early Response Teams (ERT), which will be deployed to the area in the weeks ahead.

EARLY RESPONSE TEAM TRAINING

Lastly, people who deploy to help in the immediate aftermath of a disaster are on teams called Early Response Teams in the United Methodist Church. These are skilled folks who have been through a training, have a badge, and will be contacted and told where to go in the event of a disaster near us. Please do not self-deploy to areas in the immediate aftermath of a disaster, but if you have the desire to be on one of these teams, we'd love to get some more folks from West End trained. Early Response Teams need members with a variety of gifts and graces. If you think this is a ministry you would like to be a part of, please check your schedules and register for one of the three upcoming training events in the TWKUMC. Find sign up links at westendumc.org/helene or by scanning the QR code.
