your embrace and healing.
God of every ache, help us to befriend our bodies.
Awaken a compassion, a tenderness, to the parts of us that are hurting,
changing, or tiring.
Help us to exist in the truth of what we need.
Give us the courage to ask for your intervention so that we may be restored and strengthened to follow you.

Sermon: What Do You Want Me to Do for You?Shannon Baxter

† Affirmation of FaithHampton Randall

We are not alone, we live in God’s world.

We believe in God:

who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus,
the Word made Flesh, to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the church:

to celebrate God’s presence, to live with respect in Creation,
to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Joys and Concerns of the Church

Salutation

Liturgist: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Liturgist: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory: The King of Love My Shepherd IsIrish Melody arr. John Rutter

The King of love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never.

I nothing lack if I am his, and he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul he leadeth;

and where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish, oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me;

and on his shoulder gently laid, and home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death’s dark vale I fear no ill, with thee, dear Lord, beside me;

thy rod and staff my comfort still, thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spreadst a table in my sight; thy unction grace bestoweth;

and oh, what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth.

And so through all the length of days, thy goodness faileth never;

Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house forever.

† DoxologyNo. 94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below:

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts!

Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of The United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant to participate faithfully in the ministries of the church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness, that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

† Recessional Hymn No. 553: And Are We Yet AliveDennis

with cords that cannot be broken,
bind us together Lord, bind us together
Lord, bind us together in love.

FAITHFUL GIVING 2025

Help our church thrive and grow in 2025. Our church depends on the financial support of its members to carry out the ministries and programs that allow West End United Methodist Church to be the loving light of Christ, connecting, transforming. By turning in your 2025 Estimate of Giving, you help our church staff and leaders plan and budget for the coming year. You can find a estimate card in the pew back, scan the QR code, or visit westendumc.org/estimatetnow to turn in your estimate.

Disaster and Recovery Relief Efforts

CLEANING KITS

Hurricanes Helene and Milton caused unprecedented and massive destruction across the southeast. Sensing an urgent need to get more kits made, we coordinated efforts to collect supplies and assemble buckets. We would appreciate financial donations to offset costs for supplies. To donate, you can write a check to WEUMC and mark it for Disaster Cleaning Bucket Supplies or give online at westendumc.org/give.

MONETARY DONATIONS

Money is one of the best ways to help in the aftermath of any disaster. Let's give generously to our neighbors experiencing the worst devastation and destruction that many of these areas have seen in many years. Here are three ways to give directly to help relief efforts. Giving links can be found at westendumc.org/helene or by scanning the above QR code.

- ♦ UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief)
- ♦ Western North Carolina Annual Conference
- ♦ Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference

EARLY RESPONSE TEAM TRAINING

People who deploy to help in the immediate aftermath of a disaster are on teams called Early Response Teams in the United Methodist Church. These are skilled folks who have been through training, have a badge, and will be contacted and told where to go in the event of a disaster near us. Please do not self-deploy to areas in the immediate aftermath of a disaster; but, if you have the desire to be on one of these teams, we'd love to get some more folks from West End trained. Early Response Teams need members with a variety of gifts and graces. If you think this is a ministry you would like to be a part of, please check your schedules and register for one of these upcoming training events in the TWKUMC. Find sign up links at westendumc.org/helene or by scanning the above QR code.
