who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Ministry Moment with Raise the Roof

Offertory: Every Time I Feel the Spirit..... William Dawson

Every time I feel the spirit, moving in my heart, I will pray.
Upon the mountain my Lord spoke,
out of his mouth came fire and smoke; looked all around me,
it looked so fine, till I asked my Lord if all was mine.
Jordan river is chilly and cold, it chills the body, but not the soul;
there ain’t but one train upon this track, it runs to heaven and right back.

† Doxology No. 94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below:

Praise God, the source of all our gifts!

Today's Music

Bianco da Siena was an Italian monk who wrote poems called laudi spirituali in the fourteenth century. A collection of his poems was published in 1851 at Lucca. One of these, "Discendi, amor santo," is the basis for the English translation of "Come Down O Love Divine," by Richard F. Littledale in The People's Hymnal in 1867. Littledale translated four of the original eight stanzas, but most hymnals omit his third (beginning "Let holy charity") for a consistent three-stanza text. This hymn is addressed to the Holy Spirit. Although the third Person of the Trinity is not specifically named until the very last line of the hymn, it is clear through the terms "O Love divine" and "O Comforter" that the Holy Spirit is the one to whom this prayer is addressed.

Bulletin Cover Art

"Pentecost," a piece by James He Qi, who grew up in China and whose art is heavily influenced by Chinese techniques. We have used his works for bulletin covers frequently in past years, and in September, 2022, he visited West End UMC and gave a talk about his childhood, his religious and artistic influences, and his calling to spread peace through his art.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR JUNIOR INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

This summer, we are pleased to be back at Bethlehem Centers shepherding 14 and 15 year olds in their first experience of work. We meet with the students once a week during their internship. Instead of one-on-one mentoring, we have switched to a curriculum that engages learning around the world of work that anyone can participate in once, twice, or all six weeks. If you'd like to be part of the junior internship program, please reach out to Marcia McDonald at mamcd915@gmail.com.

MAY 19 EVENTS

We have several things happening here at West End UMC today. Take a look and see what interests you and make plans to be here!

♦ LGBTQIA+ GATHERING :: MAY 19 :: 12 P.M. - We'd like to invite all LGBTQIA+ members and allies to join us today after the 11 am worship service in McWhirther Hall for a lunch gathering. We will have a time to gather together, break bread, and process General Conference. We will also talk about opportunities to serve with West End during Pride 2024 on June 22 and 23.

♦ ACOLYTE TRAINING :: MAY 19 :: 1-2 P.M. - This afternoon from 1-2 pm there will be acolyte training in the Sanctuary. The Acolyte Ministry at West End is an opportunity for children and youth to lead in our worship services each week by carrying the light of Christ into the sanctuary and back out into the world. Kids who are currently in 3rd grade and older are invited to participate.

♦ MENTAL HEALTH 101 :: MAY 19 :: 4 P.M. - In this interactive presentation on this afternoon in the 4th Story Theater, retired-board certified Licensed Professional Counselor-Supervisor, Dr. Tammy Lewis Wilborn will discuss common signs of mental health conditions and offer tips for how to support a loved one struggling to manage their mental health.

♦ TAIZÉ SERVICE :: MAY 19 :: 5 P.M. - The music and liturgy of the Taizé community ground us in practices of stillness, contemplation, and restorative healing. Join us on Sunday, May 19 at 5 pm for a Taizé worship service in the Sanctuary. All are welcome!

FAITH AND MENTAL HEALTH DISCUSSION AND LUNCH :: MAY 30

We'll end Mental Health Awareness Month with a Faith and Mental Health Discussion over lunch. Join us in McWhirther Hall at 12:30 pm on Thursday, May 30, as we are led in conversation by the Rev. Claire Harris-Kramer, PCUSA. Register at westendumc.org/discussion.

JUNE 2 :: POTLUCK AND VOLUNTEER EXPO

One of the gifts of adjusting our summer worship schedule is that it opens doors for more opportunities for us to be together! One of the ways we are taking advantage of that is by hosting Summer Fellowship Activities at 11 a.m. after the worship service. We'll host multiple gatherings, so don't worry if you miss one!

Let's start the summer with a well-loved favorite, a potluck! Bring your favorite entree, side dish, or dessert to the party! RSVP at westendumc.org/potluck and let us know what you plan to bring so we can ensure there is enough for everyone.

At the Potluck, there will be information about ways you can volunteer at the church. From Mercy and Justice ministries to the Youth and Children's ministry, there are so many ways to use your blessed gifts and talents! This is a great time to bring a friend so they can experience the famous West End hospitality and see how we live life together!

LGBTQIA+ GATHERING - LOOKING FORWARD :: JUNE 7

Church members Rodney & Bryan want to invite all in the LGBTQIA+ Community to their house for a good ol' fashioned Methodist potluck supper and conversation on Friday, June 7, at 6 p.m. Cane's chicken and drinks will be provided. Please bring appetizers, sides, or desserts to share. At this gathering, we will talk about what we want this group to become and discuss any loose ends for the church's ministry at the Pride Parade and Festival. RSVP by June 5 and let us know if you can attend and what you'd like to bring at westendumc.org/june7gathering.

PRINCIPLED FAITH: WESLEYAN WITNESS TODAY

Join us in McWhirter Hall at 9 a.m. during Sundays in June as we look to the principles of our faith. 2024 is a significant year in the life of our church, country, and world. On the heels of the UMC General Conference and in preparation for the US General Election, we will ground ourselves in our Wesleyan heritage as we engage in holy conversation around some of the pressing issues of our contemporary moment. Together we will explore how Scripture, the witness of the saints, and our UM Social Principles offer us direction as we wonder "how we might live" both as individuals and as Christ's Church.

TECH SUPPORT TEAM FORMING

The West End Family NEEDS YOU! You who easily deal with issues on your phone or your laptop: you may be somebody's offspring or grandchild who frequently answers questions. We are organizing a "Tech Support Team" who can help these "left out" folks with joining Realm, getting on Zoom for class or a meeting, or even joining Worship online. If you could give one hour a week, your choice of hours, please volunteer to be on this support team. Contact Jan Ward at jan.ward@gmail.com or 703.407.4327 and commit to being part of this new effort to "shepherd" our under-served lambs. All ages are welcome. All levels of "expertise" can help. You can be part of organizing how this support will be offered and you can indicate when and where you can be available.

GET INVOLVED WITH PROJECT TRANSFORMATION

West End is partnering with Project Transformation TN for its 13th summer. Project Transformation is a United Methodist-affiliated ministry that provides leadership development and ministry exploration opportunities to college-age young adults. Working with churches in low-income neighborhoods in Middle Tennessee, these emerging leaders coordinate community-oriented programs for under-served children and youth focusing on literacy and social-emotional learning. There are several ways you can be involved this summer, such as reading with kids, providing meals for interns, and letter writing. There is also an Amazon wishlist for supplies and donations. To find out more and sign up, visit westendumc.org/pt.

WEUMC Walking Group :: June 8

Come on a walk with new and old friends! On the second Saturday of each month, we will walk the greenways and trails of Nashville. Pay attention to the bulletin over the Summer for exact times and locations for our meetings. For questions, contact Andrew Breeden at agarlandbreeden@gmail.com.
